SUMMER/WINTER ENROLLMENT LIMITS (UNDERGRADUATE)

Undergraduate students enrolling in courses in the Summer or Winter semester at Saint Louis University are limited in the number of total and concurrent courses.

For courses that meet between 1-4 weeks
Students are limited to 1 course, not exceeding 4 credits, or courses that total 4 credits in the winter intersession.

[Exception: zero-credit labs which accompany for-credit lecture courses do not count toward the course limit.]

For courses that meet more than 4 weeks
Students are limited to 2 courses, not exceeding 8 credits, or courses that total 8 credits in any single summer session/term.

Students are limited to 2 courses, not exceeding 8 credits, or courses that total 8 credits in overlapping summer sessions/terms.

Students on Academic Probation may enroll in no more than 1 course/4 credits in any single summer session/term. Enrollment in terms which overlap has a total load limit of 1 course/4 credits.

[Exception: zero-credit labs which accompany for-credit lecture courses do not count toward the course limit.]

This policy does not apply to accelerated and required summer programs.
