

OFFICE OF ADMISSION

The Office of Admission leads Saint Louis University's efforts to identify and attract the most talented, diverse and dedicated students. The Office of Admission assists prospective undergraduate and graduate students with their admission to SLU through counseling, tours, information sessions and special events.

The Office of Admission also provides outreach to high schools, community-based organizations and community colleges, participates in college and career fairs, and hosts receptions and college readiness workshops throughout the United States and internationally. SLU admission counselors support students and families from their initial point of contact with the University until they are enrolled and proud Billikens.
