

UNDERGRADUATE ADMISSION

The Office of Admission examines secondary school grades, college admission test scores, co-curricular activities and attempted college course work, as well as other indicators of the applicant's ability and character. This process respects the non-discrimination policy of the University and is designed to select a qualified, competent and diverse student body with high standards of scholarship and character, consistent with the mission of the University.

Policies and Procedures

Applicants must adhere to all pertinent policies and procedures throughout the admission process.
