STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Current federal law requires each eligible institution participating in Title IV federal and state financial aid programs to provide consumer product information about student financial assistance and other institutional information. Students have a right to know this information, and it is available from the Saint Louis University Office of Student Financial Services or other University offices. This information is followed by a corresponding list of student responsibilities.

Student Consumer Information

Students have the right:

• To know the names of the agencies that accredit, approve, or license the University and its programs, and how these documents of accreditation may be reviewed.
• To know the University’s Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Policy.
• To know the completion or graduation, transfer out, and job placement rates of University students.
• To know the University’s federal loan default rate.
• To know the terms of, schedules for, and requirement of loan repayment, along with the importance of loan exit counseling.
• To know the terms and conditions of available loan deferments.
• To know the statistics pertaining to the receipt of University athletic-related student aid and the University’s policy of equity in athletics.
• To know campus security policies and crime statistics.
• To know what facilities and services are available to University students with disabilities.
• To know what student development services are available to University students.

Students have the responsibility:

• To keep addresses and phone numbers current with the Office of the University Registrar.
• To know the terms and conditions of loans, employment, scholarships, grants or benefit programs received.
• To know the terms and conditions of available loan deferments.
• To read, understand and accept responsibility for all forms or additional information as requested by the University, and submit FAFSA corrections or new information, as appropriate.
• To comply with aid verification requirements by providing verification or additional information as requested by the University, and submit FAFSA corrections or new information, as appropriate.
• To read and consider all information about the University before enrollment.
• To complete all University applications thoroughly and accurately, and submit them to the appropriate office(s) by required deadlines.
• To accurately and honestly complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA or Renewal FAFSA), and all academic and scholarship/financial aid eligibility information submitted to the University. Providing false or misleading information is a criminal offense, subjecting individuals to a $10,000 fine, imprisonment, or both.
• To use any federal, state, University or private scholarship/financial aid received solely for expenses related to attendance at Saint Louis University or an approved study-abroad/away program.
• To comply with aid verification requirements by providing verification or additional information as requested by the University, and submit FAFSA corrections or new information, as appropriate.
• To read, understand and accept responsibility for all forms or agreements signed.
• To report to the Office of Student Financial Services if any student loans are defaulted on or if students owe a refund or repayment on any educational grant received from any school.
• To notify student loan lender(s) of changes in name, address, and school status.
• To perform the work agreed upon when a federal work-study position is accepted.
• To know and comply with the following University policies, practices, and procedures as they relate to scholarship/financial aid: withdrawal, class attendance, refund/repayment, satisfactory academic progress, debt management, and enrollment status for aid disbursement.
• To keep addresses and phone numbers current with the Office of the University Registrar.