STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Current federal law requires each eligible institution participating in Title IV federal and state financial aid programs to provide consumer product information about student financial assistance and other institutional information. Students have a right to know this information, and it is available from the Saint Louis University Office of Student Financial Services or other University offices. This information is followed by a corresponding list of student responsibilities.

Student Consumer Information (http://catalog.slu.edu/consumer-information)

Students have the right:

- To know all the federal, state, University and private student financial assistance programs available, including both need-based and non-need-based programs.
- To know the policies, procedures, forms, deadlines, and eligibility requirements for scholarship/financial aid, and the criteria for selecting recipients and determining the amount of financial assistance to be awarded to a student.
- To know how and when disbursement of scholarship/financial aid is made, the University’s refund policy for University costs of attendance, and any refund due to Title IV federal/state and other student assistance programs.
- To know who and how to contact the Student Financial Services staff regarding information on scholarship/financial aid assistance programs, and other offices for more general information.
- To know the academic programs of the University, the facilities available, and faculty and instructional staff.
- To expect fair treatment, Saint Louis University’s Office of Student Financial Services does not discriminate on basis of race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion, sexual orientation, disability, or veteran status.
- To know the names of the agencies that accredit, approve, or license the University and its programs, and how these documents of accreditation may be reviewed.
- To know the University’s Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention Policy.

Students have the responsibility:

- To complete all University applications thoroughly and accurately, and submit them to the appropriate office(s) by required deadlines.
- To accurately and honestly complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or Renewal FAFSA, and all academic and scholarship/financial aid eligibility information submitted to the University. Providing false or misleading information is a criminal offense, subjecting individuals to a $10,000 fine, imprisonment, or both.
- To use any federal, state, University, or private scholarship/financial aid received solely for expenses related to attendance at Saint Louis University or an approved study-abroad/away program.
- To use any federal, state, University, or private scholarship/financial aid received solely for expenses related to attendance at Saint Louis University or an approved study-abroad/away program.
- To notify student loan lender(s) of changes in name, address, and school status.
- To perform the work agreed upon when a Federal Work-Study position is accepted.
- To know and comply with the following University policies, practices, and procedures as they relate to scholarship/financial aid: withdrawal, class attendance, refund/repayment, satisfactory academic progress, debt management, and enrollment status for aid disbursement.
- To keep addresses and phone numbers current with the Office of the University Registrar.