Saint Louis University students with full-time status will pay full-time tuition and fees while students with less than full-time status will pay part-time tuition and fees. See SLU’s Time Status policy for more information.

Students enrolled in fall and spring courses are assessed tuition and fees associated with their primary college, school or degree-granting center, regardless of the course or courses taken. Students enrolled in summer courses are assessed tuition and fees associated with the college, school or degree-granting center of the course, regardless of their primary college, school or degree-granting center.

Students registered for courses at Saint Louis University remain financially obligated for a course unless and until they drop it by the prescribed deadlines for dropping and adding courses (https://www.slu.edu/registrar/register/registration-dates.php).

Student Financial Responsibility

All tuition and fees listed below are for the fall and spring semesters unless otherwise noted.

Additional information on Summer Tuition

Undergraduate students enrolling in more than 18 credits are considered in an overload and additional tuition will be charged at the standard per-credit rate for all additional credits above 18 credits in fall or spring. See the Overload of Fall/Spring Credits (Undergraduate) (https://catalog.slu.edu/academic-policies/academic-policies-procedures/overload-credits/) policy for more information.
