ITALIAN STUDIES, B.A.

Studying Italian at Saint Louis University provides much more than proficiency in a foreign language. With Italian being one of Europe's major languages, not to mention Italy's role in the development of Western Civilization and its ties to non-Western cultures, the small, vibrant program gives students access to a rich curriculum drawing from centuries-long contributions in literature, architecture, painting, sculpture, music, philosophy and science.

Additional program highlights include:

- The SLU Italian studies program is the only inter/multi-disciplinary program in the Greater St. Louis area.
- The SLU Italian studies program offers more study abroad options in Italy than any language program in the Greater St. Louis area. For example, Rome, the capital; the beautiful Amalfi coast in Sorrento and medieval university city Bologna.
- The SLU Italian studies program is unique with its strong emphasis on social justice, intercultural competence and global citizenship.

Curriculum Overview

The Italian Studies program is inter/multidisciplinary in nature. The focus of the Italian Studies major is the development of linguistic and cultural proficiency within a multidisciplinary/interdisciplinary context.

In collaboration with other departments and programs, Students may take courses in other areas such as fine and performing arts, philosophy, theology, history, English, women's and gender studies, film, international studies and the Honors Program to tailor their curriculum to suit their needs and interests.

Students are also strongly encouraged to select a second major; virtually any other discipline can be considered (e.g., history, political science, psychology, theology, the sciences and others). By becoming a double major, students will significantly improve opportunities when entering the workforce, particularly in the areas of government service, or when applying for graduate study, especially in language and area studies programs.

Fieldwork and Research Opportunities

Beyond the classroom, the Italian program offers several opportunities to enrich classroom learning. La Tavola Italiana - The Italian Table meets weekly at SLU’s Center for Global Citizenship to provide casual conversation opportunities to all students at SLU. Italian Movie Night, regular movie viewings, give students a chance to learn about daily life in Italy as well as cultural and historical topics all in original version (but with subtitles). The student-directed Italian Club also hosts other activities such as cooking classes, Bocce games, movie nights and outings.

A wide variety of study abroad programs in Italy are available for students of Italian, including the Spring Hill College Italy Center in Bologna, the Sant'Anna Institute in Sorrento, the Babilonia Center in Taormina, the Loyola University Rome Campus and the Villa Nazareth in Rome.

Careers

An undergraduate degree in Italian studies prepares students for a number of rewarding careers. Opportunities are rich in fields such as literature, performing arts, cinema, design, politics, sports, fashion and industry. Hundreds of American companies operate in Italy. Students might pursue a career as a(n):

- International business representative
- International public relations professional
- Special agent
- Foreign Service officer
- Linguist
- Teacher
- Interpreter/translator

Roadmap

Roadmaps are recommended semester-by-semester plans of study for programs and assume full-time enrollment unless otherwise noted.

Courses and milestones designated as critical (marked with !) must be completed in the semester listed to ensure a timely graduation. Transfer credit may change the roadmap.

This roadmap should not be used in the place of regular academic advising appointments. All students are encouraged to meet with their advisor/mentor each semester. Requirements, course availability and sequencing are subject to change.
Program Notes

If a student places below ITAL 1010 Intermediate Italian: Language & Culture (0.3 cr) (third semester) on the placement test, the student would first take ITAL 1010 Communicating in Italian I (0.3 cr) and/or ITAL 1020 Communicating in Italian II (0.3 cr) (or ITAL 1200 Intensive Italian for Gamers (0.3 cr) in substitution for both ITAL 1010 Communicating in Italian I (0.3 cr) and ITAL 1020 Communicating in Italian II (0.3 cr)), pending placement exam placement. If a student places above ITAL 2020 Intermediate Italian: Language & Culture (0.3 cr) on the placement test, e.g. into ITAL 3010 Written Communication in Italian I (0.3 cr) (fourth semester) or even ITAL 3020 Oral Communication in Italian I (0.3 cr) (fifth semester), the student would begin their coursework for the Italian major at either ITAL 3010 Written Communication in Italian I (0.3 cr) or ITAL 3020 Oral Communication in Italian I (0.3 cr) and would take an additional two ITAL 4xxx courses (if placed into ITAL 3010 Written Communication in Italian I (0.3 cr) or ITAL 3020 Oral Communication in Italian I (0.3 cr)) to complete the 30 credits in the major.

It is very common for students majoring in a foreign language, Italian in this case, to have a second major. History was chosen for this roadmap as the second major since many students elect it as a major alongside the Italian major. Requirements for the History major are shown in bold and italics to highlight when a student who chose another major would take courses in that major.
