GREEK & LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE, B.A.

Saint Louis University’s study of classical languages is designed for students interested in the sources of Western culture who want to improve their language skills and word power. The B.A. in Greek Latin Language and Literature from SLU provides a firm interdisciplinary foundation for students pursuing a liberal arts education facilitated by knowledge of classical languages and culture. This includes fields such as law, medicine, theology, philosophy, medieval and Renaissance studies, political science, communication, mythology, anthropology, psychology, art history, cultural criticism, history of education, literary studies and comparative literature.

The study of Greek or Latin languages and literature provides a unique coherence, depth and breadth to the undergraduate scholar, offering variety, flexibility and scope. Classical studies expose students to a vast range of significant personalities, influential writing and wisdom literature. It is the “royal road” (the via regia) to important moments, ideas and movements in the cultural history of the Western world.

Curriculum Overview

A focus in Greek or Latin language and literature can complement almost any undergraduate degree program. The B.A. emphasizes the study of ancient texts in their original languages. It is often combined with another major, usually art history, biology, English, philosophy or theology. Students studying classical languages enjoy small classes and personalized attention. Students have flexibility in their programs, with many types of tutorials or independent study possible.

Students will be exposed to a wide range of significant writers and philosophers and their works.

Fieldwork and Research Opportunities

Saint Louis University encourages students to enhance their academic experience by studying abroad. Many students of Greek and Latin choose to reside and take Greek and Latin classes in Rome and other Mediterranean cities.

Students have access to SLU’s Vatican Film Library, the only collection outside of the Vatican itself, consisting of over 37,000 works from the Vatican Library and the Center for Medieval and Renaissance Studies.

Careers

Students who graduate with a degree in Greek and Latin language and literature from Saint Louis University are prepared to go on to pursue advanced degrees in fields such as:

- Law
- Medicine
- Theology
- Philosophy
- Mediterranean and Renaissance studies
- Political science
- Communication
- Anthropology
- Psychology
- Art history
- Library science
- Linguistics
- Comparative literature

Admission Requirements

Begin Your Application (http://www.slu.edu/apply.php)

Saint Louis University also accepts the Common Application.

Freshman

All applications are thoroughly reviewed with the highest degree of individual care and consideration to all credentials that are submitted. Solid academic performance in college preparatory coursework is a primary concern in reviewing a freshman applicant’s file.

To be considered for admission to any Saint Louis University undergraduate program, applicants must be graduating from an accredited high school, have an acceptable HiSET exam score or take the General Education Development (GED) test.

Transfer

Applicants must be a graduate of an accredited high school or have an acceptable score on the GED.

Students who have attempted fewer than 24 semester credits (or 30 quarter credits) of college credit must follow the above freshmen admission requirements. Students who have completed 24 or more semester credits (or 30 quarter credits) of college credit must submit transcripts from all previously attended college(s).

In reviewing a transfer applicant’s file, the Office of Admission holistically examines the student’s academic performance in college-level coursework as an indicator of the student’s ability to meet the academic rigors of Saint Louis University. Where applicable, transfer students will be evaluated on any courses outlined in the continuation standards of their preferred major.

International Applicants

All admission policies and requirements for domestic students apply to international students along with the following:

- Demonstrate English Language Proficiency
- Proof of financial support must include:
  - A letter of financial support from the person(s) or sponsoring agency funding the time at Saint Louis University
  - A letter from the sponsor’s bank verifying that the funds are available and will be so for the duration of study at the University
- Academic records, in English translation, of students who have undertaken postsecondary studies outside the United States must include the courses taken and/or lectures attended, practical laboratory work, the maximum and minimum grades attainable, the grades earned or the results of all end-of-term examinations, and any honors or degrees received. WES and ECE transcripts are accepted.

Scholarships and Financial Aid

There are two principal ways to help finance a Saint Louis University education:

- Scholarships: Scholarships are awarded based on academic achievement, service, leadership and financial need.
• Financial Aid: Financial aid is provided in the form of grants and loans, some of which require repayment.

For priority consideration for merit-based scholarships, apply for admission by Dec. 1 and complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 1.

For information on other scholarships and financial aid, visit www.slu.edu/financial-aid (https://www.slu.edu/financial-aid/).

Program Notes

The sequence of courses will vary according to the student’s previous experience with the language and individual preferences.

SLU’s major in Greek and Latin language and literature requires GK 2010 Intermediate Greek Lang & Lit (3 cr) and LATN 2010 Intermediate Latin: Language & Literature (3 cr), and eight electives (any Greek or Latin upper-division courses, with at least three credits in each language) to equal a total of 30 credits.

SLU Greek and Latin language and literature majors generally complete a second or even a third major in another discipline — for example, history, English, biology, psychology, philosophy, communication, etc.
