BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, M.B.A. (ONE-YEAR)

The one-year MBA is a cohort-based program that begins each summer and spans three terms — summer, fall, and spring. This is a lockstep program with courses team-taught by faculty from different business disciplines to provide an integrated approach to solving business problems. The program integrates data analytics throughout the curriculum to prepare graduates for successful careers making informed decisions in today's data-driven business environment. Prior work experience is not required.

The summer courses equip students with the business concepts and theories that lay the foundation for application in the Fall term. The fall semester builds on summer courses and includes team-based business simulations. Between the fall and spring semesters, students study abroad for one week in Hong Kong to gain valuable hands-on international business experience. The spring semester includes an Industry Practicum project. The Industry Practicum is a live, team-based data analytics project which students complete for and with an outside corporation or non-profit organization. During this project teams receive support and additional training from a faculty mentor and use the skills they have developed during the previous two semesters. Students also participate in a year-round Professional Effectiveness Series, which provides ongoing career support and professional development.
