SPORTS BUSINESS, MINOR

While working with a major sports team may be the inspiration for pursuing a minor in sports business, Saint Louis University's coursework prepares students for careers in a wide variety of positions and organizations.

A truly interdisciplinary minor, sports business offers students the option to take courses in four different departments, including management. Students gain practical knowledge through a capstone project and have the opportunity to supplement classwork through internships and the Sports Business Association, a Chaifetz School of Business student organization.
