EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP, PH.D.

This Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Leadership is designed to prepare students to be scholars, professors, and/or organizational leaders. Students enter the program with a M.A. in education, leadership, or related field. The curriculum is based on a selection of core courses in educational leadership and courses that complement students’ professional goals.

Curriculum Overview

The degree requires the completion of 30-36 credits of coursework, 12 credits of dissertation research, a comprehensive written examination, an oral examination/proposal defense, and a public defense of the dissertation.

Fieldwork and Research Opportunities

The program includes site-based activities aligned with course work as well as the 3-credit internship.

Careers

The educational leadership degree programs prepare students to fill a variety of leadership roles, including: superintendent, principal, program director and curriculum/teacher leader. Additionally, some doctoral students design a special individualized program to prepare for a leadership role in a nonprofit, medical or business organization.
