Accreditation

The School of Law has been continuously accredited by the American Bar Association (ABA) since December 1924.

Requirements

Students are eligible to apply to the Philosophy/JD program any time in their undergraduate career after having completed between 15 and 48 credits at SLU.

Students must maintain a 3.00 cumulative GPA to continue in the accelerated program. After having completed 75 credits, students will submit an application to SLU LAW. If admitted to SLU LAW, these students will begin their JD program in their fourth year. The first year of law school coursework will count as elective credit toward the undergraduate bachelor’s degree. Students will be awarded their bachelor’s degree after the successful completion of their first year of Law School.

Students will be required to complete at least 75 percent of course hour credits necessary to earn their undergraduate degree (i.e., minimum 90 credits) before matriculating into the first year of law school. These hours must include Arts and Sciences BA core curriculum (51-57 hours) and 21 additional credits in the Philosophy major. All core curriculum and major requirements will be met before students matriculate.

Students not admitted to SLU LAW will remain eligible to receive a BA in Philosophy from the College of Arts and Sciences upon successful completion of 120 credits.
