In the spirit of the Jesuit tradition (https://www.slu.edu/about/catholic-jesuit-identity/) of “men and women for and with others,” there is a focus (https://www.slu.edu/about/catholic-jesuit-identity/) of “men and women for and with others,” there is a focus on the commitment to public service as part of the legal profession. Public service projects begin at orientation, and opportunities continue throughout the program.

Policies

The student handbook is published each August and describes the procedures and rules that will ordinarily govern academic and student life at the School of Law. The most up-to-date version of the handbook replaces previous versions.

Students are obligated to know and follow the procedures and rules contained in the handbook. The handbook is reviewed and amended annually and as deemed necessary by University and/or School of Law administration, committees or faculty (hereinafter collectively “administration”). The rules and procedures in the handbook may also be superseded, suspended or complemented by the administration as they may deem it necessary and proper. Nothing in this handbook is intended to create, nor shall anything be understood to create contractual or legally enforceable rights.
