EVIDENCE-BASED DECISION MAKING, POST-BACCALAUREATE CERTIFICATE

If you have already obtained a master’s degree or higher, or if you meet the program prerequisites, SLU offers a stand-alone certificate in evidence-based decision making that can be completed entirely online.

In an era in which fake news, pseudoscience and alternative facts govern headlines (and large-scale decisions), SLU’s graduate certificate in evidence-based decision making will benefit you by focusing on identifying quality evidence that can be infused into decision making, critically evaluating arguments for and against a particular decision, and applying sound, systematic processes for making ethical decisions.

Curriculum Overview

Designed for working professionals, this program is offered in eight-week terms with online classes. It can be completed in two semesters (four eight-week terms) if you take one course at a time.
