PROJECT MANAGEMENT, CERTIFICATE

Through Saint Louis University’s School for Professional Studies certificate in project management, you can acquire the project management knowledge and skills needed in modern organizations. Whether in technology and manufacturing or sales and service, you’ll gain the leadership, data and management competencies you need to succeed in this growing field.

As part of the School for Professional Studies, this 18-credit certificate in project management offers you a flexible option to meet your personal career goals. With multiple start dates, you can begin working toward your certificate at any time through SLU Online. All courses are offered entirely online in eight-week terms, making advanced education more accessible for working professionals.

Careers
Project management skills are needed across multiple disciplines, from technology to manufacturing, real estate to construction, and sales management to service. In 2020, the Project Management Institute projected an estimated 15.7 million vacant project management positions worldwide.

Admission Requirements
The School for Professional Studies welcomes adult learners whose educational journey has been interrupted by life’s circumstances. This includes individuals with at least one of the following characteristics:

- Delayed enrollment in post-secondary education
- Attends part-time for at least part of the academic year
- Works full-time (35 hours or more/week) while enrolled
- Financial independence, has dependents other than a spouse, is a single parent, or has other demands that make traditional education less feasible

Application Requirements
- Work Experience: At least three years or the equivalent. Work experience may include a full-time/part-time job, internship, volunteer work, or comparable experiences.
- Education: High school diploma or composite GED score of at least 2250.
- Coaching session: Successful completion of a meeting with an academic coach (this can be done virtually or on campus).
- Grade Point Average: Minimum transfer cumulative GPA of 2.5 (unless qualified for conditional admittance).
- Transcript: An official transcript from the most recent institution attended.

Scholarships and Financial Aid
There are two principal ways to help finance a Saint Louis University education:

- Scholarships: Scholarships are awarded based on academic achievement, service, leadership and financial need. The School for Professional Studies offers numerous scholarships and awards specially for new students.
- Financial Aid: Financial aid is provided in the form of grants and loans, some of which require repayment.

To determine eligibility for financial assistance, submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) early for maximum consideration. FAFSA is available online at http://www.fafsa.ed.gov.

For information on other scholarships and financial aid, visit the student financial services office online at http://finaid.slu.edu.
