SECURITY & STRATEGIC INTELLIGENCE, MINOR

Saint Louis University Security and Strategic Intelligence (SSI) program is an innovative minor in the School for Professional Studies designed to provide students with the fundamental knowledge and skills of security, intelligence and computer information systems necessary to pursue a career in this growing market.

Students pursuing a minor in security and strategic intelligence at SLU will gain a competitive edge while studying relevant and timely intelligence topics including terrorism, homeland security and cybercrime.

This program allows students to specialize in one of three concentrations:

- Business Continuity
- Global Corporate Security
- Strategic Intelligence

Students may choose this 18-credit program as a minor combined with a major in pursuit of a bachelor's degree.
