SOCIAL WORK, B.S.

Put yourself in a position to improve the quality of life of individuals and communities faced with poverty, serious illness or disability with a Bachelor of Science in Social Work (BSSW). Through your coursework at Saint Louis University’s School for Professional Studies, you’ll prepare for generalist social work practice in a program that integrates knowledge and skills with field experience.

After finishing your major’s prerequisites in the School for Professional Studies, where you will take your classes online, you will complete the remainder of your classes in an on-campus, eight-week format through the School of Social Work. During senior year, you will spend two to three days a week in a social service agency of your choice, supervised by an experienced social worker. High-achieving students may apply to the accelerated master’s program during their junior year of study, through which they can earn a Bachelor of Science in social work in four years and a Master of Social Work (M.S.W.) with just one additional year of study.

As part of the School for Professional Studies, this 120-credit program offers caring adults like you a flexible option to meet your personal career goals. With six accelerated, eight-week terms each year, you can begin working toward your degree at any time.

Fieldwork and Research Opportunities
From strong service-learning components, students embody the University’s Jesuit mission by using the knowledge they gain in the classroom to serve others. In addition to volunteer work, students can explore different types of social work with guidance from seasoned professionals through partnerships with more than 250 social service agencies around the St. Louis area.

Careers
Social Work graduates can look forward to careers in a wide variety of settings. U.S. Department of Labor projections indicate a steady demand for social work jobs in the years ahead.

Most social workers specialize in an area of practice, including but not limited to clinical work, child welfare or family services, mental health, schools, and policy-making and advocacy.

Admission Requirements
• Age: 22 years or older (exceptions may be made)
• Work Experience: At least three years or the equivalent
• Education: High school diploma or composite GED score of at least 2250
• Interview: Successful completion of a meeting with an academic coach (this can be done over the phone or on campus)
• Grade Point Average: Minimum transfer cumulative GPA of 2.5 (unless qualified for conditional admittance)
• Transcript: An official transcripts from the most recent institution attended

Scholarships and Financial Aid
There are two principal ways to help finance a Saint Louis University education:

• Scholarships: awarded based on academic achievement, service, leadership and financial need. The School for Professional Studies offers numerous scholarships and awards specially for new students.
• Financial Aid: provided in the form of grants and loans, some of which require repayment.

To determine eligibility for financial assistance, submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) early for maximum consideration. FAFSA is available online at: http://www.fafsa.ed.gov

For information on other scholarships and financial aid, visit the student financial services office online at http://finaid.slu.edu.

Active Military and Veterans
Students may be eligible for a reduced tuition rate of $410 per credit for this program. In addition, Saint Louis University participates in the Yellow Ribbon Program for eligible students.
