ART 1930 - Special Topics

Credit(s): 1-3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)

ART 1980 - Independent Study

Credit(s): 1-3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)

ART 2000 - Drawing I

Credit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction to the basic elements in drawing. Line and mass as a means to explore objective and spatial concepts in various media. A lab fee is required. Satisfies core requirement in Fine Arts.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2025 - Figure Drawing

Credit(s): 3 Credits

This life drawing class is designed to teach techniques of representing the human form accurately, anatomically, and rapidly. The approach to direct observation is stressed through out the semester.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2080 - The Architect's Sketchbook 1

Credit(s): 1 Credit

Going back to the 15th century, if not before, one way for an architect to become educated in the art and science of building was to travel and sketch what was built elsewhere. We will be broadly following this model though our subject will be the built environment more broadly. While we are intensely observing and recording these spaces, we will consider how cities are put together and shape the lives of the people that inhabit them. ART 2080 concentrates on developing drawing skills. ART 2090 is refining those skills during a semester abroad.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2090 - The Architect's Sketchbook 2

Credit(s): 2 Credits

ART 2100 - Design

Credit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction of the basic formal concepts in the two-dimensional arts; line, shape, value, color, texture, and balance as interdependent units. A lab fee is required. Satisfies core requirements in Fine Arts.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2120 - Introduction to Three Dimensional Design

Credit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction to the design elements in three-dimensional forms and space. A variety of construction methods will be used in developing visual acuity. A lab fee is required.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2150 - Color Theory

Credit(s): 3 Credits

An exploration of the theory and visual effects of color within the framework of fundamental design concepts that demonstrate the properties and interaction of color. A lab fee is required.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2200 - Painting I

Credit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction to the fundamentals of painting from observation: color, shape, spatial relationships, and materials related to the traditional practice of painting in oil. A lab fee is required.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2300 - Printmaking I

Credit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction to basic printmaking with emphasis on intaglio and relief processes. Students learn how to work indirectly through reverse images. The mechanics of printing multiple prints in edition will be taught. A lab fee is required.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2400 - Ceramics I

Credit(s): 3 Credits

Clay is an ideal material for fundamental approaches in both sculpture and traditional ceramic applications, including throwing on a potter's wheel, modeling, and constructing, along with the development of perceptual skills. Utilized throughout human history, clay continues to be a vital material for artistic creation. A lab fee is required.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2450 - Sculpture I

Credit(s): 3 Credits

This course is an introduction to the fundamentals of sculpture. Students will practice the use of additive and subtractive processes in various materials, including wood, plaster, and metal. Communicating ideas and evoking meaning through form, presentation and site-specificity will be explored.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2460 - Installation and Public Art

Credit(s): 3 Credits

In this course we will explore the social, political and aesthetic aspects of installation and public art. We will make maquettes, use a variety of sculptural processes and develop an understanding about the significance of site, intended audience and material in installation and public art. Different strategies, concepts and approaches to installation art and public art will be covered through readings and discussions. Studio time will be supplemented by readings, lectures and guest artist visits.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2480 - Fibers and Textiles

Credit(s): 3 Credits

Textiles by their very nature are interdisciplinary. This course is an introduction to the diversity of textile arts. After initial experimentation with the techniques of beading, pattern design, assemblage, embroidery and fabric dying, students are encouraged to push the boundaries of the media, adding traditional and nontraditional materials.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2490 - Jewelry and MetalsmithingCredit(s): 3 Credits

This course is designed to introduce the student to the basic techniques of traditional and non-traditional metalsmithing. Includes reviews of current and historical jewelry concepts. Class time will be spent on demonstrations, critiques, project and concept development towards creating an individual direction in metals.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS)

ART 2500 - Computer Art ICredit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction to the computer as an artistic medium. Students develop skill and fluency with graphic software as well as explore the distinct aesthetics of computers. Lectures and research will strengthen students aesthetic vocabulary and deepen their understanding of political and cultural implications of electronic art.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2600 - Analog PhotographyCredit(s): 3 Credits

An introduction to analog (nondigital) black and white photo technique: camera, film, and darkroom procedures including film processing and printing. Coursework will cover a range of technical and aesthetic topics including: exposure, contrast, and composition. Students must have a 35mm FILM (not digital) SLR camera with manual control of shutter speed and f-stop. The focus of this course is on analog processes using film and working manually in the darkroom.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Film & Media - Creation, Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2650 - Digital PhotographyCredit(s): 3 Credits

This introductory level course will explore digital technology for capturing, enhancing and producing still lens-based images. The course will address basic digital camera operations, the visual language of camera-generated images, computer workflow and the aesthetics of digital image output.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Film & Media - Creation, Studio Art Exploration, UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2700 - Graphic Design ICredit(s): 3 Credits

This course is an introduction to the basic principles and concepts of graphic design. Projects will develop idea generation, problem solving and technical skills. The use of type, image and visual style as components of communication will be introduced. Students will use industry standard software. A lab fee is required.

ART 2790 - Book Arts: An Introduction to Making Artist's BooksCredit(s): 3 Credits

This course explores the practice of making artist's books through hands-on projects, developmental critiques, and discussions of contemporary artists using the book format. An artist's book is a medium of artistic expression that uses the form or function of "book" as inspiration. We will explore the question, "What is a book?" and what are the possibilities of the book form as a medium for artists. In this introductory course, students will learn basic elements of bookbinding, including structure, materials, tools, and techniques. Over the course of the semester we will build several artist's books that integrate concept with form.

Attributes: UUC:Creative Expression

ART 2800 - Studio Freshman SeminarCredit(s): 1 Credit

Students will meet once a week with the instructor to discuss current art projects, examine the place of art in the liberal art education, review supporting texts, visit art exhibitions, and prepare for ongoing art making. There will be off-campus visits to museums, and galleries. Students will create an on-line portfolio.

ART 2850 - Studio Art SeminarCredit(s): 3 Credits

This seminar course provides direction and support for all majors in Studio Art. Students are advised to take this course in the fall of their sophomore or junior year. Students will examine the place of art in the liberal arts education, create an on-line portfolio for presentation of student's work, participate in discussions of readings, critiques, and attend field trips and guest speaker events. With an eye on post graduate success, students will learn about and hone their skills in writing about art, making art, and viewing art through the lens of contemporary art, media, and community.

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3000 - Drawing IICredit(s): 3 Credits

Building on foundation concepts and skills, this course examines the subjective modes of drawing by exploring the extended use of materials, formal concepts and organizing strategies, and expressive responses to observed subjects. A lab fee is required.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2000; ART 2100; ART 2120; ART 2150

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3025 - Figure Drawing: AdvancedCredit(s): 3 Credits

Figure Drawing: Advanced is a continuation of Figure Drawing designed to further develop technical proficiency of representing the human form accurately. The approach to direct observation is stressed throughout the semester. In addition, students consider the implications of representations of the body through the lens of culture and history. Prerequisite of ART 2025 Figure Drawing or permission of the Instructor.

ART 3200 - Painting IICredit(s): 3 Credits

A continuation and elaboration of Painting I with a greater opportunity to employ individual choices while working within project guidelines that explore the relationship of image/idea with conceptual approaches to the medium. A lab fee is required.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2200

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3300 - Printmaking IICredit(s): 3 Credits

A continued exploration into printmaking processes with an emphasis on intaglio and relief. Students develop imagery that is more personal and exploits the properties of the print process. A lab fee is required.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2200

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3400 - Ceramics IICredit(s): 3 Credits

Larger, more complex forms will be created by hand and on the wheel. Mastery of technical skills, including firing techniques and clay/gaze formulations, will allow students to pursue their aesthetic and conceptual goals, increasing their level of personal investigation and expression. A lab fee is required.

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3450 - Sculpture IICredit(s): 3 Credits

A continued exploration of sculptural processes in various materials, including wood, plaster, and metal. A greater emphasis will be placed on the development of concept and content.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2450

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3480 - Fibers and Textiles IICredit(s): 3 Credits

This course is an advanced textiles course. We will build on the skills and concepts learned in Fibers and Textiles I while also introducing new textile processes. Focus will be placed on each student developing a personal textile technique vocabulary in order to create three large scale projects.

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3500 - Computer Art IICredit(s): 3 Credits

A continuation of Computer Art I in which students explore the computer as an artistic medium, expand existing software skills, and gain new web-based skills. A lab fee is required.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2500

Attributes: Classical Humanities, Studio Art Exploration

ART 3700 - Graphic Design IICredit(s): 3 Credits

This course addresses the anatomy, history, basic principles and creative possibilities of typography. Students investigate how type functions as a system of communication and as an abstract visual element. Projects emphasize legibility, readability and expression. Experimentation with form and communication will be stressed. Lab fee is required.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2700

Attributes: Studio Art Exploration

ART 3800 - Studio Sophomore SeminarCredit(s): 1 Credit

Students will discuss art projects, examine contemporary art practice, learn the grant-writing process, visit art exhibitions, discuss exhibition practice, contribute to and present an on-line portfolio, and prepare for ongoing art making. There will be off-campus visits to museums, and galleries.

Prerequisite(s): ART 2800

ART 3910 - Studio Art InternshipCredit(s): 1-6 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
