FILM & MEDIA STUDIES (FMST)

FMST 1040X - Art & Film
3 Credits
This course will focus on the relationship between film and modern art. Motion picture making is a distinctly modern art form and shares characteristics found in modern art. Through art and film, we will examine impressionism, symbolism, expressionism, cubism, futurism, Dadaism, abstract art, pop art and performance art.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Film Studies

FMST 1400X - Film Criticism
3 Credits
Viewing and discussion of some short and several feature films; terminology discussion and exams; written reviews and responses to film discussion; defining of film as an art.

Attributes: Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Film Studies, Film & Media - Critical Study

FMST 1450 - Introduction to Film and Media: Form and Context
3 Credits
In this course, Introduction to Film and Media: Form and Context, students will learn about the broader history of film from its inception and early pioneers to the technological innovations that made the contemporary blending of 3D animation and live action possible. They will also gain a tool kit of film theories to analyze film and media content that they encounter not only in other academic contexts, but also in their personal lives. Finally, students will be introduced to basic approaches to film criticism, video editing, and narration through the production of one or more video essays.

Attributes: Film Studies, UUC:Aesthetics, Hist & Culture

FMST 2060X - Media and Society
3 Credits
This introductory course provides students with the background and critical skills necessary for understanding how media work and how they impact our everyday lives. It seeks to give students critical media analytical skills necessary to succeed as professionals, citizens, and members of a community.

Attributes: Film Studies, International Studies, International Studies-Arts, Social Science Req (A&S), UUC:Social & Behavioral Sci

FMST 2510X - Acting I: Fundamentals
3 Credits
Study in the principal theories of realistic acting is balanced with practice in experiencing character creation. Principals of physical and emotional character development are explored. Satisfies the Arts and Science Core Requirement for non-majors.

Attributes: Dance Related Area, Fine Arts Requirement (CAS), Film Studies Creation, Film & Media - Creation, UUC:Creative Expression

FMST 2700X - Film, Culture and Literature
3 Credits
This course introduces literary study within the context and theme of Film and Culture. Through the reading of a wide variety of genres - including drama, poetry, and fiction - the course engages students in literary ways of knowing. Methods include close reading, comparative textual analysis, and argumentative writing.

Attributes: Catholic Studies-English, Film Studies, Film & Media - Critical Study, Literature BA Requirement(CAS), MLIC Elective, UUC:Aesthetics, Hist & Culture

FMST 3770X - Film and Literature
3 Credits (Repeatable up to 6 credits)
Examines works of literature and film.

Attributes: English Form & Genre, Film Studies, Film & Media - Critical Study, Literature BA Requirement(CAS), Literature BS Requirement(CAS), UUC:Aesthetics, Hist & Culture, UUC:Writing Intensive

FMST 4200X - History of African American Cinema
3 Credits

Attributes: African American Studies

FMST 4910 - Film Studies Internship
1-6 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
This course may be used as a substitute for the FMST 4850 Capstone upon approval of the Film Studies Director.

Attributes: Film Studies, UUC:Reflection-in-Action

FMST 4960 - Film Studies Capstone
3 Credits

FMST 4980 - Advanced Independent Study
1-3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)