HSI 2100 - Health Care Management
Credit(s): 3 Credits
This course will discuss management and project management from the standpoint of a healthcare manager who must organize, plan, implement and control tasks. Students will learn to apply management theory and project management tools and techniques to achieve an organization’s schedule, budget and performance objectives.

Restrictions:
Enrollment is limited to students with a program in Health Information Mgmt, Health Sciences, Magnetic Resonance Imaging, Nuclear Medicine Tech or Radiation Therapy.