MKT 6120 - Marketing and Electronic Commerce
Credit(s): 3 Credits
The Internet including the World Wide Web and on-line services, comprise the on-line world of cyberspace – the so-called information highway. This communications channel provides a massive electronic pipeline between businesses and consumers. Equally important, it opens up exciting new possibilities that challenge traditional ways of interacting, communicating, and doing business. The World Wide Web is increasingly being recognized as an important emerging commercial medium that presents a fundamentally different environment for marketing activities. This ‘hands on’ course will focus on the marketing issues surrounding commercialization of the Web and other emerging electronic media. It will examine strategic and operational issues facing firms who wish to compete in this dynamic new medium. The course format will consist of a combination of lecture/discussion, case study, expert guest speakers, and student presentations of Web Marketing Reports.
