MODERN LANGUAGE (MLNG)

MLNG 1100 - Contemporary Issues
Credit(s): 3 Credits
This class studies American culture through topics of global issues, social justice, and cultural diversity. A service learning component will allow students to have a practical application of the knowledge, as well as leadership training in service projects in the urban setting of St. Louis. Required readings and movies will be about different sub-cultures within the United States and a variety of global issues.
