OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
(OCTH)

OCTH 5010 - Foundations of Occupational Therapy: Theories, Domains and Processes
Credit(s): 3 Credits (Repeatable up to 6 credits)
This course will provide students with an overview and synthesis of historical and contemporary perspectives that guide current occupational therapy practice. Students in this course will understand and apply fundamental concepts and language used in current occupational therapy theories and practice models. (Offered every Summer)
Restrictions:
Enrollment limited to students in a Doctor of Occupational Therapy degree.

OCTH 6200 - Professional Leadership and Public Policy
Credit(s): 3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
This course provides foundational knowledge regarding professional leadership and public policy with specific focus on how each impacts clients and the profession of occupational therapy. At the completion of the course, students will have an increased understanding of the nature of health policy-making, health politics, and current healthcare issues as they advocate for clients and the profession. (Offered every Spring)
Restrictions:
Enrollment limited to students in a Doctor of Occupational Therapy degree.

OCTH 6100 - Occupational Science in Practice and Society
Credit(s): 3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
This course will examine current trends in occupational science knowledge and their interactions with contemporary healthcare practice and societal developments. By the end of the course, students will be able to articulate and defend the relevance of occupational science knowledge for modern issues of real-world concern. (Offered every Fall)
Restrictions:
Enrollment limited to students in a Doctor of Occupational Therapy degree.

OCTH 6400 - OTD Practicum 1
Credit(s): 3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
This practicum course engages students in a supervised, 12-16 week practicum experience at a practice-related site chosen in collaboration with the student's faculty mentor. The practicum is an integral part of doctoral education that facilitates translation of knowledge from the didactic curriculum to practice settings. During this course, students will have the opportunity to apply, analyze, and critique learned ideas in a practice setting, make improvements to existing service delivery processes, and/or contribute to information dissemination. As a practicum experience, this course provides an opportunity for development of post-professional occupational therapy skills through involvement in a practice or advocacy setting.
Restrictions:
Enrollment is limited to students with a major in Occupational Therapy.
