PLS 2200 - Law: Service Learning
Credit(s): 0-3 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
This course offers exposure to a variety of contemporary legal and policy issues as they intersect with race, ethnicity, gender, socioeconomic status, and other underrepresented classifications. The course will focus on issues that affect diverse populations regionally, across the country, and internationally. Classes will include discussions, role playing, and other interactive activities designed to improve understanding of the course material. Students will be evaluated on multimedia reflections, online and class participation, individual and group research and presentations.

PLS 2500 - The Anatomy of the Lawsuit
Credit(s): 2 Credits
This hands-on course provides students with a practical understanding of the pretrial process and how discovery procedures shape and impact civil litigation today. The progression of class topics mirror the pretrial process within the context of a hypothetical case. Starting with the initial client interviews, class topics will include: (1) interrogatories; (2) requests for production; (3) discovery motions; (4) depositions; (5) pleadings; and (6) oral arguments. During the course students will be involved in simulated client contact, discovery proceedings, and motion arguments. Students will receive instruction on persuasive legal writing and oral advocacy and will prepare written motions and discovery documents.

PLS 3100 - Introduction to Trial Advocacy
Credit(s): 2 Credits
This course teaches students how to prepare a legal case for a jury trial. Students learn the basic building blocks of a jury trial, the development of trial strategy, and the use of evidence at trial. The course focuses on advocacy techniques and the application of those techniques to the court setting. In conjunction with this course, students are required to simultaneously enroll in PLS-3200 (Introduction to Trial Advocacy Lab) where students will use the techniques in a practical setting as members of the undergraduate mock trial teams.

PLS 3200 - Intro to Trial Advocacy Lab
Credit(s): 0-2 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
Students apply jury trial techniques learned in PLS-3100 (Introduction to Trial Advocacy). Students are introduced to, and participate in, mock trial competitions sponsored by the American Mock Trial Association as members of the undergraduate mock trial teams representing Saint Louis University. Students act as both attorneys and witnesses in the mock trial setting to further their understanding of the jury trial process.

Prerequisite(s): PLS 3100
* Concurrent enrollment allowed.

PLS 3400 - Trial Advocacy Practicum Lab
Credit(s): 0-2 Credits (Repeatable for credit)
Students explore trial advocacy at an advanced level by participating in mock trial competitions sponsored by the American Mock Trial Association as both witnesses and attorneys. Students enrolling in this course must first complete PLS-3100 (Introduction to Trial Advocacy) and PLS-3200 (Introduction to Trial Advocacy Lab) or receive instructor permission.

Prerequisite(s): PLS 3100, PLS 3200

PLS 3500 - Introduction to Environmental Law
