

2.1 DEFINITIONS

1. The term "Accused" refers to the Student, group of Students, or University affiliated organization alleged to have committed a violation of the University's Community Standards.
2. The term "Advisor" refers to an individual provided by the University or selected by a Reporting Party or Accused Party, who is present at any meeting related to an investigation or disciplinary proceeding. An Advisor of choice may include an attorney retained by a Party at their own expense. An Advisor provided by the University will be trained in regard to University policies, procedures, and resources. Advisors may participate in University processes in an advisory capacity, but they may not take part directly in the investigation, meeting with the Hearing Officer, or appeal. If a party wishes to speak privately with their Advisor they may request a brief recess from the meeting or proceeding. The University has the right at all times to determine what constitutes appropriate behavior on the part of an Advisor. The Advisor may not be a fact witness or otherwise have any conflicting role in the process.
3. The term "Appeal Body" refers to any University official or group authorized by the University to hear appeals of decisions implemented by a Hearing Officer. See University Appeal Board (UAB) and Community Standards Appeal Board (CSAB).

6. The term "Community Standards Appeal Board" (CSAB) refers to the panel authorized by the University to hear appeals of decisions made by a Hearing Officer. Each CSAB consists of, at a minimum, a three-member Student panel selected from a larger trained pool of Students. The CSAB reviews appeals of non-suspendable violations. CSAB appeal members receive annual training on the Community Standards process.
7. The term "Director of Student Responsibility and Community Standards, or designee" refers to the University official authorized to administer, enforce and facilitate the rules and procedures set forth in the Community Standards and other University policies, procedures, rules and regulations. The Director, or designee, is authorized to serve as a Hearing Officer and/or Decision Maker or on the UAB and may impose any sanction in all cases.
8. The term "Hearing" refers to the meeting in which a Student is provided the opportunity to meet with a Hearing Officer and either take responsibility or not take responsibility for the alleged Community Standard violation(s) as provided in their notification letter. For those Hearings concerning violations that could result in suspension or expulsion from the University, a Student may have an Advisor accompany them.

12. The Term "Sanction, Outcome and/or Restorative Action" refers to the requirements that must be completed by the individual if found responsible for violating the University's Community Standards. Outcomes, Sanctions and/or Restorative Action requirements may vary on a case by case scenario and are assigned to the individual by the Hearing Officer.
13. The "Student" refers to any and all persons enrolled at or taking courses through the University in any capacity. Persons who withdraw after allegedly violating the University Community Standards, those persons not officially enrolled at the University, but who maintain a continuing relationship with the University, those persons who have been notified of their admitted status to the University, individuals living in University owned/operated residential facilities, and those persons suspended from the University are also deemed "Students" under the Community Standards.

17. The term "University Appeal Board" (UAB) refers to the panel authorized by the University to hear appeals of decisions made by a Hearing Officer. Each UAB consists of a combination of faculty, staff, and/or Graduate Students. A minimum of three-members are selected from a trained pool of faculty, staff, and/or graduate Student representatives. Every effort will be made to have Student representation on each UAB; however, certain periods of the year make ensuring such representation difficult. UAB appeal members receive annual training on the Community Standards process. A decision from the UAB represents the final outcome in an appeal case.
