

2.11 RETALIATION

Retaliation against any Student, faculty member, or staff member as a result of reporting a violation of the Community Standards, participating in an investigation related to such a report, or participating in any hearing or appeal process related to a report is prohibited. Examples of retaliation include, but are not limited to, stalking, intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination because of a person's complaint or participation in an investigation, hearing, or appeal. Any allegations of retaliation or abuse of the conduct system should be reported to the Office of Student Responsibility and Community Standards and will be investigated to determine whether a violation of the Community Standards occurred.
